

Preparedness for Emergencies

Your business can make a difference!

Emergencies can strike without warning. As a local business, your services and resources can play a vital role when it matters most.

Here's how your business benefits:

Connected

Build relationships and expand your network with direct member-to-member connections.

Curated

Showcase your business effectively by selecting relevant categories that highlight your products and services.

Targeted

Optimize visibility by listing your company's products and services using emergency management-specific language and categories.

Searchable

Ensure quick and easy discovery of your offerings through location-based, categorized searches and direct links to featured items.

Accessible

Access essential tools and resources anytime with a secure, cloud-based platform available 24/7, 365 days a year.

Useful

Instantly receive activation noticed and send offers of support to help streamline response and recovery efforts.
